WELCOME TO HOTEL MESTARI

Hotel Mestari, in the Master Builders' House at the corner of Fredrikinkatu and Eerikinkatu, is a new meeting place in the centre of Helsinki where modern individuality meets an eventful and fascinating history.

Hotel Mestari is the latest chapter in the story of the Master Builders' House, which began in the 1930s. The origins of the building are still reflected in Mestari's philosophy, which respects the manual skills of the builders: in the hotel's rugged, masculine style, many of the original elements of the building are left exposed.

MASTER YOUR STAY

A modern touch gives Mestari its sense of individuality. Each guest can build their ideal stay at Mestari, with a choice of eight room categories and additional experiential services. For example, guests can order the relaxing Cool Down service for the room, the Romance package for the perfect end to a romantic evening, or the Groom Your Gear package to ensure that the party shoes are sparkling and the atmosphere is electric.

Mestari also offers a service called Choose Your Timing, which allows guests to choose their arrival and departure times according to their needs and daily rhythms. At Hotel Mestari, you can come and go whenever you please, and there is no need to stress about waking up in time or missing out on breakfast.

MESTARI STORIES

Mestari stories is a meeting place for showcasing masters of their fields, sharing insight, and nurturing the expertise of our times. The masters who come from all over Finland are united by their personal skills in their specialist areas and an unwavering vision of what they do.

Who is Kristiina Michelsson?

An interior designer who specialises in public spaces and the founder of Studio Arcibella, which creates designs that always bring out the genuine history of the sites.

“

I want customers to experience the spirit of the place through our design. That's why the design stems from the history and environment of the space. I want to draw on what is already in the building. For example, the original 1930s brick in Hotel Mestari is exposed in various parts of the hotel.

“

The coffee I roast for Hotel Mestari is a deliciously balanced and full-bodied blend with a hint of berries from Kenyan beans. The coffee is designed as the perfect accompaniment to treasured moments at the hotel.

Who is Krister Kaattari?

The master roaster at the Robert Paulig Roastery, who approaches his work with reverence and always starts the day with a cup of light-roasted coffee.

Who is Tuomas Laine?

The marketing manager at Joutsen, a company renowned for its high-quality products. Laine shares the same values as the family business he works for.

“

Inviting bedding tempts guests to lie on the bed. The rustle of a down duvet is the sound of luxury, and the cool air in the room makes the warmth of the duvet feel even better. Sometimes people call us and ask where they can get the same pillows and duvets that were in the hotel where they just stayed.

Restaurant

Restaurant LATIN BISTRO & BAR MAESTRO 51 is the fiery heart of Hotel Mestari, where uncompromising Nordic tradition meets southern passion and bold flavours. The restaurant's menu was inspired by the South American food culture, as well as a combination of experimentation and pleasure - using sustainable, high-quality ingredients sourced from Finland and abroad. The heart of the Latin-inspired kitchen is the grill, which imbues a depth of flavour and colour on the plate.

A relaxed, South American approach is reflected in the restaurant's philosophy: breakfasts are served all day, and local residents can enjoy a Maestro brunch at weekends. During the day, Maestro keeps step with the rhythm of the city, and the restaurant promises lunch within 5-15 minutes. As the day turns to evening, the restaurant becomes a meeting place where guests can choose an area with the best atmosphere for them.

The Maestro 51 bar welcomes guests and friends until the early hours of the morning. An extensive selection of artisan tequilas and rums and a cocktail menu designed by master bartender Mauricio Allende keeps guests coming back again and again.
